

James A. McGee
Senior Associate

Education

- > Master of Science in Criminal Justice (Virginia Commonwealth University)

Key Areas of Expertise

- > Risk Assessments
- > Counterterrorism Assessments
- > Threat Analysis
- > Crisis Management
- > Homeland Security
- > Spectator Sport Safety and Security

Relevant Experience

- > 25 years of law enforcement experience
- > 21 year career as a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)
- > Criminal justice administration and project management

Mr. James A. McGee has twenty-five combined years of law enforcement experience, twenty-one years as a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Mr. McGee's experience includes ten years in criminal justice administration and project management as an FBI Supervisor. He has sixteen years of experience addressing international security issues, counterterrorism investigations, crisis management, critical infrastructure protection/risk assessments, and homeland security initiatives.

As a Senior Associate with ARMADA, Mr. McGee conducts Security Threat & Vulnerability Assessments (STVA). Most recently, he served as a Subject Matter Expert on the Capital University STVA including conducting a Capabilities Assessment and developing a final report including an Implementation Plan.

Mr. McGee is currently employed as a Security Consultant with The University of Southern Mississippi National Center for Spectator Sport Safety and Security and as an Adjunct Professor with the Tulane University Department of Homeland Security Studies. He also frequently serves as an instructor for the United States Department of State Anti-Terrorism Assistance Program.

Mr. McGee is designated as an expert witness in security issues regarding critical infrastructure protection, specifically venues of mass gatherings of people and provides corporate security consultation for ESPN.

The following is a sampling of the many Counterterrorism Risk Assessments/Documents conducted by Mr. McGee: Capital University (Columbus, Ohio) Campus Risk Assessment; Penn State University Sport Event Security Aware audit; Texas A&M University Sport Event Security Aware audit; Jackson Memorial Stadium Risk Assessment; University of Southern Mississippi M.M. Roberts Stadium Sport Event Security Aware audit; FBI Jackson Field Office Crisis Response Plan and Aircraft Hijacking Plan;

James A. McGee
Senior Associate

FBI Crisis Response Plan/Operations Order for the 2004 Summer Olympic Games; Counterterrorism Vulnerability Assessment for the Louisiana Superdome for Super Bowls XXXI and XXXV; Department of State Anti-Terrorism Assistance Program Counterterrorism Assessments in Ghana and Uganda; Asian Games Risk Assessment in the United Arab Emirates, United States Government Response Plan for the Denver Summit of the Eight; Federal Crisis and Consequence Management Plan for the 53rd Presidential Inauguration; Multiple Risk Assessments for the XXVI Summer Olympic Games; Counterterrorism Assessment for the Department of State's Anti-Terrorism Assistance Program; Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport Risk Assessment; and Puerto Rico International Airport Risk Assessment.

Mr. McGee has also authored a number of publications including the book Phase Line Green-The FCI Talladega Hostage Rescue which won a 2010 IPPY Award for 2nd place in True Crime category.

Mr. McGee earned a Master of Science in Criminal Justice from Virginia Commonwealth University.